

Words by
C. Francis Reisner.

Frisco's Kitchen Stove Rag.

Music by Jimmie Morgan.

$\text{♩} = 170$

ff

6

7

Vamp.

Down in Dix - ie
One step called the there's a spot. They do a dance that sure is hot The kit-chen stove is what they call this furn-ace shake An - oth - er one called bake the cake The kit-chen stove gives ev - 'ry one a new hot danc-ing craze. You feel as though your ver - y soul, Was a piece of burn-ing danc-ing ap - pe - tite. The la - dy's there with stle and looks, Danc-ing like a bunch of coal._____ And when you do this dance you'll think your feet are all a - blaze.

17

22

cooks._____ And when that Jazz band starts to play you burn up with de - light.

Chorus.

Comelets do the kitch-en stove. Down at Darktowns mid-night grove. It will set your heart a-flame. And make you dance till you are lame. Each man whirls his la-dy fair.

Just like smoke we'll fan the air, The shoes up - on your feet. Will burn up with the heat You'll have a hot time when you do the kitch-en stove, Get the wood, Get the wood, Get the wood.

42

3

44

1

47

stove. Get the wood, Get the wood, Get the wood. Burn it up

2