

4. Spring Is Not Dead

Spring Songs, Op.44

Alexander C. Mackenzie

Allegro moderato (

)
♩ = 80

Voice

Piano

f p

5

p

Snow on the earth; though March is well nigh o - ver,

p

9

p

Ice on the flood; Fin - gers of frost where late thehaw - thorn co - ver

calando a tempo

calando a tempo

15

p

bur - geoned with bud. Yet in the drift the pa - tient

calando a tempo accel poco a poco

p a tempo accel poco a poco

2

19

prim - rose hid - ing, Yet in the stream the glitt - ering

23

trout - let glid - ing, Yet from the root the sap still

sempre accel.

27

up - ward spring - ing, Yet o - ver - head one faith - ful

rit.

31

sky - lark sing - ing "Spring is not dead!"

apassionato

f a tempo

sempre

35

Spring is not dead, is not dead!

rit. a tempo

rit. f a tempo

38

mf p

42

Brows fringed with

f p p

46

snow, the furrowed brows of sorrow, Cheeks pale with

p calando

4
50

care: Pul - ses of pain that throb from night till mor - row;

p

55

Hearts of des - pair! Oh, yet take com - fort, still your

mf calando p accel.

59

joy ap - proach - es, Dark is the hour that on the

mf

63

dawn en - croach - es, Ap - pril's own smile shall yet suc -

f p accel.

67

-ceed your sigh - ing A - pril's own

70

voice set eve - ry song rit. bird cry - ing,

sempre

73

ff

a tempo appassionato

"Spring is not dead," "Spring is not dead, is not

77

a tempo

dead!"